

2022 AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN GLOBAL LANGUAGES

Global Languages will present three awards—one first prize and two Distinguished Scholars—to the undergraduate students who best reflect the unit's goals for achievement of proficiency in language, cultural understanding and enthusiasm in language learning.

Conditions of the award:

1. Application materials will be available on February 11, 2022. Completed applications will be due to the instructor by March 11, 2022 for completion of endorsement. The instructors will have to submit the award applications along with the endorsement by April 1, 2022 to the committee. The winners will be announced via email on April 18, 2022. As a condition of applying for the award, applicants are asked to make every effort to attend the Global Languages Spring Fest on April 25th, where the winners will be honored by the community.
2. Students will self-nominate. The award will be based on commitment to and continuity in language study, demonstrated achievement in one or more languages, and enthusiasm for other culture(s).
3. Interested students should get an application, fill it out, and submit it to ONE current or prior Global Languages instructor (only one endorsement is allowed per nomination). The instructor will submit the application to the committee and complete an online endorsement form.
